INSURANCE DIVISION BULLETIN No. 2012-009

July 17, 2012

2012 JUL 17 PM 2 16

NEW MEXICO
PUBLIC REGULATION
COMMISSION
FILED

TO: PROPERTY/CASUALTY INSURERS

RE: 30-DAY CANCELLATION NOTICES REQUIRED BY STATE AGENCIES

THE FOLLOWING BULLETIN is issued pursuant to 13.1.2.1 to 13.1.2.10 NMAC:

The purpose of this Bulletin is to advise insurers that certain commercial policyholders are required by New Mexico rules and statutes to provide certain State Agencies with proofs of insurance that include a statement from the insurance company that it will notify the State Agency thirty days before cancelling the insurance. Types of insurance issued to policyholders that are subject to such governmental requirements include but are not limited to:

- Product liability insurance issued to manufacturers of ignition interlock devices
- Garagemen's public liability insurance issued to service centers where ignition interlock devices are installed
- Vehicle insurance issued to driver education schools

In situations where New Mexico rules or statutes require a commercial policyholder to provide a State Agency with proof of insurance that includes a statement from the insurance company that it will notify the State Agency thirty days before cancelling the insurance, the insurer shall provide such a statement.

Any questions about this Bulletin should be directed to Sider Esquibel at (505) 476-0340 or at isidro.esquibel@state.nm.us.

DONE AND ORDERED this 17th day of July, 2012.
